

Switching your Account
Changing your automatic deposits/payments to your new IBA Account

Switch your direct deposits and automatic payments to International Bank of Amherst. Complete and sign one form for each direct deposit (or automatic payment) and mail to the company(ies) you currently authorize to make direct deposits (or automatic payments) to (or from) your account, such as Social Security, dividend, brokerage, other automatic investments, (utilities, cable, mortgage, credit card, internet service, insurance) etc. This form will notify the company(ies) that you wish to have your direct deposit (or automatic payment) transaction redirected to International Bank of Amherst. To ensure accuracy, please attach a voided check from your new International Bank of Amherst account to each Enrollment/Authorization form that you use (see below).
